

Dare to be a CHAMP™

Say it. Mean it. Nail it.

Your go-to for communication that connects

Developed by communication experts Mila and Aline, Dare to be a CHAMP™ is driven by two convictions:

- that good communication is the indispensable bedrock of human connection,
- and that with the right ingredients, anyone who puts their mind to it can be a communication champ.

As an intergenerational duo, Mila and Aline combine the best of two worlds: the “now” of connecting in the digital age with the “always” of communicating across cultures, complexities and contexts.

“It’s been a while since I enjoyed a workshop
this much. I loved every minute of it!”

Why choose us? CHAMP is more than an abbreviation. It’s our defining acronym.

Each letter of the acronym stands for a staple ingredient of being and thriving as a communication champ.

Dare to be a CHAMP is where you will discover and hone those ingredients, enabling you to take your communication skills to the next level.

We offer communication workshops, training seminars and one-to-one coaching sessions shaped to your requirements.
